

A N A B S T R A C T O F T H E

Act for making Good the Deficiencies of several Funds therein mentioned, and for Enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for Raising the Publick Credit.

Anno 8 & 9 W. III.

- R Eciting, That several Persons having Lent Moneys upon the several Aids, Duties and Impositions in the Act mentioned; And that by the Deficiencies of the said Duties, and the Remoteness of the Talleys thereupon, and the great Discount thereof, the Publick Credit is much Impaired; Which Deficiencies are thus Computed, viz.
- Upon the First 4s. Aid 55622 l. 10 s. 5 d.
Upon the Third 4s. Aid 407372 l. 0 s. 3 d. Upon the Fourth 4s. Aid 917101 l. 13 s. 2 d. 1/2
Upon the Quarterly Poll 89275 l. 13 s. 4 d.
Upon the Three Fourths of the Customs 213447 l.
15 s. 9 d. Upon the Salt Act, &c. 1711500 l. Upon the Two Thirds of the Additional Excise 160000 l. Upon the Additional Impositions on Goods and Merchandizes 445177 l. 7 s. 4 d.
Upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper 224114 l.
7 s. 8 d. 1/2. Upon Marriages, Births and Burials,
&c. 648000 l. Upon Wines, Vinegar, Tobacco,
East-India Goods, &c. 146181 l. 19 s. 5 d. 1/2.
And on the 300000 l. per An. out of the Tunnage and Poundage 142666 l. 7 s. 3 d. 3/4. amounting in the whole to 5160459 l. 14 s. 9 d. 1/4.
- E N A C T E D, That the Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, &c. Granted Anno 12 Car. 2. to the said King for Life, and Continued Anno 6 W. 3. for Five Years, from 26 Decemb. 1694 be Continued to 1 Aug. 1706. And that the Acts made Anno 12 & 14 Car. 2. Relating to the Customs; and the Act An. 22 Car. 2. Relating to Tillage and Breed of Cattel; And the Acts Anno 25 Car. 2. for taking off Aliens Duties, and Relating to the Greenland, Eastland and Plantation Trades; And the Act Anno 1 Jac. 2.
for Improvement of Tillage, and all the Clauses therein, or in the Act Anno 6 W. 3. Relating to the Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, be of full Force and Effect till the said 1 Aug. 1706.
- That the Duties upon Wines and Vinegar, Granted 1 Jac. 2. for Eight Years, and since Continued by several Acts to 29 Septemb. 1701.
be further Continued till 1 Aug. 1706.
- That the Duties on Tobacco, Granted Anno
1 Jac. 2. for Eight Years, and since Continued by several Acts to 29 Septemb. 1701. be further Continued till the said 1 Aug. 1706. under the Rules and Directions Relating thereunto, in the Act Anno 7 & 8 W. 3.
- That the Additional Impositions upon East-India and other Goods, Granted Anno 2 W. & M. and since Continued by several Acts to 29 Sep. 1701. be further Continued till the said 1 Aug. 1706. under the Directions of the said Act, Anno 2 W. & M. not otherwise Altered or Provided for by any Subsequent Acts now in being.
- That the Additional Impositions on several Goods and Merchandizes Granted An. 4 & 5. W. & M. for Four Years, be continued to the said 1 Aug. 1706. under the Rules of the said Act, subject to the Exceptions and Provisions in this present Act, viz. That the Additional Duty of 20 s. per Tun for Lapis Calaminaris Exported, be only 2 s. And that Barr Iron wrought, or Slit or Hammered Rod Iron, Imported from Ireland (other than Swedish or Foreign Iron) be Discharged of the Impositions laid on the same by this or the said Act 4 & 5. W. & M. And that the Alterations made by any other Acts in being, touching the said Impositions, be observed.
- That the Duties on Vellum, Parchment and Paper, Granted An. 5 & 6. W. & M. for Four Years, from 28 Jun. 1694. be continued till 1 Aug. 1706. under the Rules of the said Act, except where altered by any other Act.
- That the Duties on Marriages, Births and Burials, &c. Granted An. 6 & 7. W. 3. for Five years, from 1 May, 1695. be continued till the said 1 Aug. 1706. under the Rules of the said Act.
- And that the Duties on Houses, Granted 7 & 8. W. 3. for Seven years, from 25 March, 1695. be continued till the said 1 Aug. 1706. under the Rules of the said Act.
- But that His Majesty may Constitute Surveyors or Inspectors of the said Duties on Marriages, Births and Burials, and upon Houses and Windows, who shall Certifie the Neglects or Failures in the Assessments of those Duties to the Commissioners, that so all Persons may be duly Assessed accordingly.

p. 326. That the Duties on Batchelors and Widowers who are Servants in Hubandry, be Paid by the Master or Mistress, and Deducted out of their Wages. That Houses Inhabited by Two or more Families, be Charged as if Inhabited by One Family only. That every Edifice in the Inns of Court or Chancery, be Charged as an intire House according to their several Tenures or Occupations. And that every House left to the Care of any Person or Servant be Charged as an inhabited House.

AND for Restoring of Credit, &c. Enacted, That the present Stock of the Bank of England be Enlarged by New Subscriptions of Natives, Foreigners or others: But that before such Enlargement, and before the Twenty fourth of July, 1697. The said Stock shall be Computed by Seven of the Present Members and Seven of the New Subscribers, or in Default thereof by the Lord Keeper, at any time before 24 Aug. 1697. And if the Clear Stock Amount not to 1200000 l. the Old Members to make it up in Tallies, Orders, Bank Bills or Notes; but if it exceed 1200000 l. then the Surplus to be Divided among the said Old Members.

p. 330. That seven or more of the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty for that purpose shall take such New Subscriptions before 24 Jun. 1697 in Books to be provided before 2 Apr. 1697. and in such convenient House or Houses in London and Westminster, as they shall provide and give Publick Notice of.

p. 331. That Four Fifths of each particular Subscription be at the time of subscribing answered by Talleys or Orders upon the First, Third or Fourth Aids of 4 s. per Pound; the Quarterly Poll; Three Fourths of the Customs; the Salt Act; Two Thirds of the Additional Excise; the Additional Impositions; the Parchment Act; the 300000 l. per ann. on Tunnage and Poundage; the Duties on Marriages, Births and Burials, &c. on Wines, Vinegar and Tobacco, &c. on Joynt Stocks, &c. on Low Wines, &c. on the 6000 l. per Week out of the Excise, or the 600 l. per Week out of the Post-Office; and the other Fifth part in Bank Bills or Notes.

That after 24 Jun. 1697. Interest of Eight per Cent. per Ann. be allowed for the Talleys and Orders so subscribed, out of the Funds or Provisions Granted by this Act.

p. 332. That the Interest payable to the Bank upon so many Talleys or Orders as the Bank is already possessed of, whereof the Principal shall be equal to the said Fifth part subscribed in Bank Bills or Notes, be likewise augmented to Eight per Cent. per Ann. after the said 24 June.

p. 335. And that the said New Subscribers shall after the said 24 June be Members of, and united to the present Bank of England, by the Name of the Governour and Company of the Bank of England, with perpetual Succession, and a Common Seal, &c.

p. 337. Provided, That upon twelve Months Notice after 1 Aug. 1710. upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Bank the 1200000 l. mentioned in the Act for Granting several Rates upon Tunnage, &c. and all Arrears of the 100000 l. per ann. and all the Principal and Interest which shall be due to the said Bank upon Talleys, &c. then the said Bank to cease and determine. But that during the continuance of this Bank, no other Bank shall be Erected or permitted by Act of Parliament,

That the Interest due on Talleys and Orders Subscribed into the Bank shall be accepted as so much Principal Money. p. 332.

That the said Bank may borrow or give security for by Bills (over and above the 1200000 l. to which they were at first limited) any Sum, not exceeding the Sum subscribed, under an Obligation of paying the said Bills in Money upon demand; And in default thereof, the said Bills to be paid at the Exchequer out of the first Money due unto the Bank other than the Fund of 100000 l. per ann. But that these Bills shall be distinguished from the Debts contain'd within the said 1200000 l. p. 341.

That the Capital Stock and Fund of the said Bank be exempt from Taxes.

That after the compleating of the said Subscriptions, the Interest of all Talleys and Orders subscribed, together with the said 100000 l. per ann. shall be applied to the use of the Bank, proportionably to each Members Share therein. p. 342.

That after 25 Mar. 1697. the Stock of the said Bank shall be accounted a Personal and not a Real Estate, and descend accordingly: And no Bank Stock shall be Sold without Registering the Contract thereof at the Bank within seven days, and actually Transferring it within fourteen days. p. 343.

That no Act of the Bank shall forfeit the Stock thereof, provided they pay their Debts. And that it shall be Felony to counterfeit the Common Seal of the said Bank, or any Seal'd Bank Bill, or any Bank Note, or Alter or Erase such Bills or Notes. p. 344. p. 345.

That the Office of the Exchequer shall keep distinct Accounts of all Moneys Appropriated or Due to the said Bank, either upon the Fund of 100000 l. per Annum, or any other Parliamentary Funds, or for Talleys belonging to the said Bank; and shall duly Direct, Record and make Payment thereof, under Penalty of loss of Place, &c. p. 346.

THAT the Moneys arising by the Continuation of the Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, &c. by Wines, Vinegar and Tobacco, &c. by the Additional Impositions on Goods and Merchandizes, by Vellum, Parchment and Paper, by Marriages, Births and Burials, &c. and by the Duties on Houses, from the times the said Duties are severally continued, as aforesaid, till 1 Aug. 1706. And by the Surplus of the said Duties on Wine, Vinegar and Tobacco, &c. over and above the 1500000 l. Credit given thereupon, and the interest thereof arising by the Act continued till the said 29 Sept. 1701. And also on Houses, (after the Repayment of 7382 l. 11 s. 4 d. borrowed thereon, and the Interest thereof; And after that, the Bills Signed at the Mints for 6 d. per oz. upon Plate brought in between 4 May 1696. and 4 Nov. 1696.) Arising by the Act granted for Seven years from 25 Mar. 1696. And upon Salt, Glass-Wares, &c. (after the Repayment of 1724000 l. borrowed thereon, and the Interest thereof) arising by the Act Anno 7 & 8 W. 3. shall be the General Fund for making good the particular Funds or Deficiencies in this Act Expended, and shall be appropriated and applied accordingly. p. 347. p. 348. p. 351. p. 352.

And that the Moneys arising by the said General Fund before 28 Jun. 1698. as well for the Duties on Houses (after the said 7382 l. 11 s. 4 d. and the Interest thereof, and the 6 d. per oz. for Silver is satisfied) as for the said Additional Duties on Goods and Merchandizes continued from from ult Febr. 1696. shall be applied towards Interest due to the Bank of England, or others, for Loans upon the First, Third and Fourth 4s. Aids; the Quarterly Poll; three Fourths of the Customs; and two Thirds of the Additional Excise, and upon the Additional Impositions, ending 1 Mar. 1696. And that out of the same Moneys the Bank shall receive so much as will make their part of the Interest 8 l. per Cent. for all their Talleys and Orders.

p. 355. Provided, That if the said Money fall short, a proportionable part, so far as it will Extend, shall be applied to the Interest upon each of those Funds: And if there be an Overplus, the same to go towards the Principal Moneys upon each of those Funds proportionably.

p. 357. And the Moneys arising by the said General Fund after 28 Jun 1698. as well by the said Duties on Houses, and Additional Impositions, as at any time or times for the said Duties on Vellum, Parchment and Paper, continued from 28 Jun. 1698. to 1 Aug. 1706. And for Tunnage and Poundage, &c. continued from 25 Dec. 1699, to 1 Aug. 1706. And for Marriages, Births and Burials, &c. continued from 1 May, 1700. to 1 Aug. 1706. And for Wines, Vinegar and Tobacco, &c. continued from 28 Sept. 1701. to 1 Aug. 1706. And by the said Surplus on Wines, Vinegar and Tobacco, &c. and on Salt, Glais-Wares, &c. shall be applied towards Principal and Interest of the said First, Third and Fourth Aids of 4 s. per pound; the Quarterly Poll; the three Fourths of the Customs; the Duties on Salt, &c. the two Thirds of the Additional Excise; the Additional Impositions; the Duties on Vellum, Paper and Parchment; on Marriages, Births and Burials, &c. on Wines, Vinegar and Tobacco, &c. and the 300000 l. per Annum, out of Tunnage and Poundage, in proportion to the respective Deficiencies, as computed in this Act.

p. 360. And that by 26 July 1698. and thenceforth every Twenty eight days, an Account shall be made up at the Treasury, of all the Moneys brought in, applicable to the said Deficient Funds, which shall be applied proportionably, as aforesaid, as well to the Bank of England, as other Persons Intituled to Principal and Interest thereon: And that out of the said General Fund, the Interest due to the Bank shall be made up 8 l. per Cent.

p. 362. Provided, That where any Revenue is already appropriated by Parliament for Repayments in Course, the same shall be paid accordingly; But that the new Funds in this Act shall be applied as hereby prescribed.

p. 363. AND that in case of Judgment of Forfeiture given against the said Bank, the yearly Payments out of the Exchequer, and all the Estate belonging to the said Bank to be Vested for Three Years in Twenty four Persons, or Trustees, chosen by the Bank who shall have full power to receive the Moneys due unto the said Bank, as if no such Judgment had been given, and to pay and discharge the Debts due at the time of such Judgment: After which the Surplus to be divided amongst the several Members: And then the said yearly payments shall be vested in the particular Members, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, in proportion to a List thereof to be made up by the said Trustees, and shall be Assignable.

p. 365. That the said Bank may employ a Clerk to take Docquets of any Extents, Judgments, &c. in any the Offices of Record at Westminster, paying as for a search only.

That no Member of the said Bank be adjudged a Bankrupt by reason of his Stock in the said Bank, nor the said Stock be subject to any Foreign Attachment.

And that the Moneys received out of the Exchequer for the said Bank shall once in every Four Months be divided among the Members proportionably; for their particular use and behoof only.

Provided, That the Debts of the said Bank shall never exceed their Capital Stock, under Penalty of subjecting the Overplus of their particular Shares and Dividends so received to satisfy the said Debts.

That if at the end of one Year after 24 June, 1697. the said Funds for Interest shall appear insufficient, they shall be made up out of such Aids, &c. as shall be Granted the then next Session of Parliament, and so in any succeeding Year.

And if upon 1 Aug. 1706. or within Three Months after, the Produce of the several Aids, &c. shall not be sufficient to discharge the Principal and Interest intended to be discharged by this Act, then the same shall be supplied out of such Aids, &c. as shall be Granted the then next Session of Parliament.

That the present Governour, Deputy Governour and Directors of the Bank shall continue till 24 June, 1697. and till others be chosen, which shall be before 24 July, 1697. And those New Chosen to continue till 25 Mar. 1698 But in that and all future Elections, not above Two Thirds of the Directors of the preceding Year to be chosen.

THAT after 25 Mar. 1697. and till 25 Dec. 1699. there shall be paid for Salt, over and above all other Duties already payable, the Rates following, viz. For every Gallon of Salt Imported 2 d. And for every Gallon of Salt or Rock-Salt made at the Salt Works, 1 d. to be Collected and Answered pursuant to the Rules and Directions of the Act, An. 5 & 6. W. & M. touching the Duty upon Salt; and the Act, An. 7 & 8. W. 3 for Continuing the said Duty. But with an Allowance upon Exportation for every Cask of Pilchards or Scads of 50 Gallons, 8 s. every Barrel of White Herrings 20 d. of Red Herrings, 16 d. of Salmon 3 s. 4 d. and every Hundred of Codfish, Ling or Hake, 10 s. over and above all former Allowances, with a Drawback of the Duty for all Exported Salt.

That this Duty upon Salt shall be appropriated (with the said other Duties) to Payment of Interest due before 25 Decemb. 1699. to the Bank or others, upon the Deficient Funds, and the overplus towards the Principal.

THAT for Five Years, after 10 June 1697 or before the end of the then next Session of Parliament, no Person shall Give or Take, Directly or Indirectly, for any Tally or Order above Six per Cent. more than the Interest thereof, under Penalty of treble the Value of the Principal, and to suffer as an Extortioner.

And that after the said 10 June 1697. No Orders or Talleys shall be Transferred but by Writing Sign'd and Registred, and Affidavit made (if Payable by Order at the Exchequer) before the Auditor of the Exchequer or Clerk of the Pells; or if Payable by Tally of Pro at the Excise Office; Post Office or other Publick Office, then before one or more Commissioners of Excise, or Postmasters General, or other Chief Officers in such Publick Office; That no Allowance whatsoever exceeding the Interest and Six per

p. 381. per Cent. as aforesaid, hath been taken or agreed to be taken for such Assignment: Which Assignments and Affidavits shall be Made, Registered, Administred and Noted gratis.

p. 382. And every Broker or Solicitor who shall after the said 10 June take above 2 s. 6 d. for the Brokidge of One hundred Pounds shall forfeit Twenty Pounds; and Contracting for any Premium contrary to this Act shall forfeit Five hundred Pounds, and suffer as an Extortioner.

p. 383. But Persons having actually bought Orders of Loan or Talleys before the said 10 June, and shall make Oath thereof, shall not be obliged to take the Oath touching Premium.

p. 384. AND it is further Enacted, That the Bills of Credit authorized to be issued this present Session of Parliament, be received and taken not only by the Receivers or Collectors of Taxes Granted or to be Granted for the War this p. 385. Year 1697. but be Current to the Commissioners, Receivers or Collectors of any Tax or Supply Granted or to be Granted this present Session, and also at the Exchequer: And that there shall be an Allowance upon the said Bills of 5 d. a day for every Hundred Pounds till Payment thereof; At which time the Person so answering the same to His Majesty shall put to his Name and Day of the Month.

p. 386. And the said Bills are not to be Cancelled except by the Tellers of the Exchequer, but as they are Issued out are to be Signed and Dated toties quoties.

p. 387. And in case any of the said Bills should be refused, that the Commissioners of the Treasury may Contract with any Persons to Advance Ready Money for Exchanging and Circulating the said Bills, upon such Security as shall be Agreed on, and a further Reward, not exceeding Ten per Cent. per Ann. And the Interest Money shall be paid to such Contractors out of the Supplies Granted for the War for Ann. 1697.

Provided that till the said Bills for 1500000 l. p. 389. can be Exchanged for Ready Money, they shall be current only for the Taxes Granted for the War for An. 1697. Exclusive of the 3 s. Aid; but afterwards for all Taxes or other Payments to His Majesty.

AND that all the present Governours of any English Plantations shall before 25 March, 1698. (and the future Governours within Six Months after their Entrance upon their Governments) take the Oath appointed in the Act, An. 7 & 8. W. 3. to do their utmost that the Acts relating p. 390. to Shipping, Navigation, Trade and the Plantations, made An. 12 & 15 Car. 2. and 7 & 8. W. 3. be punctually observed.

AND that the Sum of 3280 l. 8 s. 9 d. Received in Hammer'd Money by Ralph Williamson, Receiver General of the 4 s. Aid in the Counties of Tork, Durham and Northumberland, and by him deposited in the Exchequer, be Received by the Tellers there, and a Discharge passed for the same.

AND that after 1 May, 1697, any Tobacco p. 391. Pipe Maker, upon Drawing his Tobacco Pipes, finding them unfit for Sale, may (on Notice to the Officer in that behalf) Return the same, and then Pay the Duty thereon Established by the Act, An. 7 & 8. W. 3.

F I N I S

L O N D O N,

Printed by Charles Bill and the Executrix of Thomas Newcomb decess'd; Printers to the Kings Most Excellent Majesty. M DC XCVII.